FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - JANUARY 18 2008

CCA's Digital Media Arts announces Movies Inside and Out

The Center for Contemporary Arts' newly opened, fully equipped, Digital Media Arts department is presenting a unique collaboration between the Digital Media Arts program and the Cinematheque called Movies Inside and Out.

Movies Inside and Out is a mini-workshop designed in honor of the groundbreaking animated film Persepolis. The first night of this workshop, participants will watch the film and discuss it (over dessert and coffee); the second evening participants will talk about the history and broad categories of animated movies and the third evening participants will make animated movies together. This workshop is a great family activity for parents and teens.

INSTRUCTORS: T. Foley, Jason Silverman and Martin Back

Registration for this workshop must be completed by Friday February 15th
